

Royal Commission hearings

26 August 2020

The Disability Royal Commission is looking at

- Neglect
- Abuse
- Violence
- Exploitation. This is when people make you do things you do not want to do

The Commission stopped having public hearings because of Coronavirus.

The Commission is now having public hearings again.

In September there will be a hearing on

- medication and behaviour

In October there will be a hearing on

- education

In November there will be a hearing on

- the criminal justice system

In November there will be a hearing on

- First Nations people

In December there will be hearings on

- training of health care professionals
- employment

Most people are not allowed to go to the hearings.

You can give evidence in other ways

- phone
- email
- video

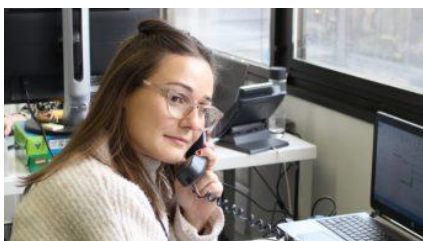

For help giving evidence call the Disability Royal Commission on 1800 517 199.

The hearings will be shown on the Royal Commission's website

www.disability.royalcommission.gov.au

You will be able to watch the videos when the hearings are happening.

If you have any questions please call us on 1800 424 065.