

My Right to Decide

Are you a person with disability who has support workers in your home?

Our training can help you to:

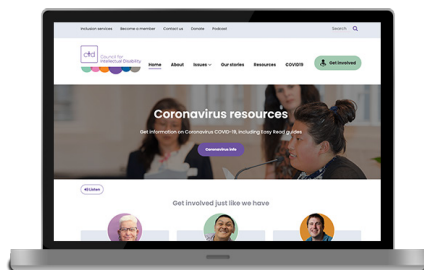

- ✓ Build your decision making skills
- ✓ Know your rights
- ✓ Get good support
- ✓ Share how you feel
- ✓ Tell people what you want for your life

My Right to Decide works with people with disability, their support workers and families.

➔ What is Council for Intellectual Disability (CID)?

We want a community where all people with intellectual disability are valued. We work to build a community that protects rights, includes everyone and supports people well.
