

CID easy to read eNews June 2022

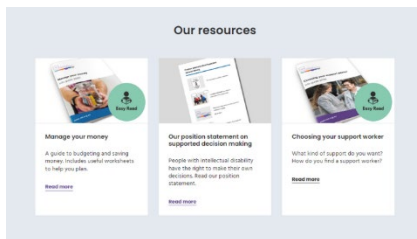

My Rights Matter Hub

My Rights Matter is a project from CID.

My Right Matter team has put together information about supported decision making.

The information is on the CID website.

We call this part of the site the Information Hub.

The Hub gives people information to help them with their decisions.

It has information and stories about supported decision making.

The My Rights Matter Hub will help you

- Think about your rights
- Make new decisions in your life

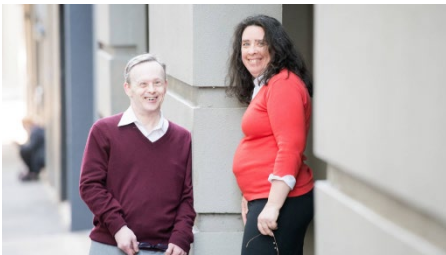

It will also tell you when workshops and events are on.

Email sdm@cid.org.au if you have any questions.

Visit the Hub on our website.

Congratulations

CID members Fiona McKenzie and Michael Sullivan have been named as Members of the Order of Australia.

This is an important award for all the great work they have done.

Congratulations Fiona and Michael!

Read more on our website.

Choosing your support worker

This info guide will help you think about

- What kind of support you want
- What your support worker should be like
- How to pick the right person for the job.

Read and download the guide on our website.

Our latest podcast episode Rap, Rainbows and the Rag Trade

In this episode we talk with Ben Paior-Smith.

Ben is an artist.

He designs clothes for his fashion business called Hazzah.

Ben tells us about where he gets his ideas from.

He tell us his dreams for the future.

Listen to the episode on our website.

Registration open for My Life My Choices conference

My Life My Choices is holding a conference on September 28 2022.

It is a day for people with intellectual disability

It will be led by people with intellectual disability.

We will be talking about Supported Decision Making.

The conference will be held at Bankstown Sports Club.

To register you can

- call us on 1800 424 065
- email info@cid.org.au or
- fill out a form on our website.

3DN wants to know palliative care for people with intellectual disability could be better

3DN are doing research.

They want to hear from people with an intellectual disability and their supports.

This will help 3DN plan better ways to care for people with intellectual disability at end of life

Find out more information on 3DN's website.

Audio Ability accessible training

Audio Ability trains and supports people with disability who want to work in community media.

Find out more and register your interest to be a participant on their website.

Got a question?

Call CID on 1800 424 065

This is an easy to read version of the Council for Intellectual Disability eNews. You can sign up for this eNews at www.cid.org.au/news