

Cafe staff allrounder

who has lived experience of intellectual disability

Job Guide

This guide has 3 parts

1

About this job

2

Skills you need for this job

3

How to apply for this job

Please read all the information before you apply

1

About this job

We are looking for a person with intellectual disability

You will help people to have more power to make choices and decisions for themselves.

This job is part time.

You will work 8 hours each week.

You will normally work on Monday and Tuesday

You will normally work between 10am to 2pm

This job is for 24 months.

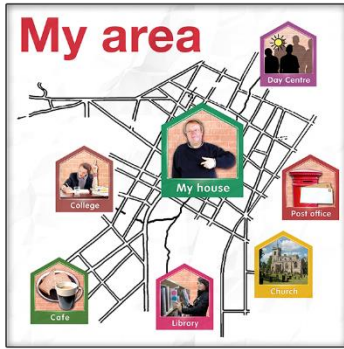

It will start in February.

You will be paid $28.50 – $35 an hour.

This is Hospitality Industry (General) Award 2020 Grade 2.

The award tells hospitality businesses how much to pay the staff.

You will work in NSW.

You may be asked to travel around NSW for work.

CID will pay for this.

You might work at

- A CID office
- Your home
- A place in the community

You will mostly work online.

If you live in Sydney or Wagga you may work from a CID office.

You will get support from CID staff.

You will report to a CID Manager.

The Job is with CID (Council for Intellectual Disability)

We speak up for the rights of people with intellectual disability.

We provide information and support people to learn.

We help make the lives of people with intellectual disability better.

The project is about supported decision making.

Supported Decision Making is about the right to make your own decisions with good support.

We will share information about supported decision making.

We will train people to use supported decision making in their lives.

This will help people with intellectual disability to make decisions for themselves.

What you will do in this job

Talk with people with and without a disability about choices and decisions.

Share good ways to get and to give support.

Make resources for training and workshops.

Lead groups or run workshops face-to-face or online.

Be part of meetings and events for people with intellectual disability and their supporters.

At the meetings we will share stories and information about supported decision making.

2

Skills you need for this job

You will

- Know or learn about seating and serving customers.
- Make sure customers are having an enjoyable experience in the cafe.
- Take orders.
- Advise and recommend items from the menu.

Work as a team with other staff.

Be helpful.

Speak up if you need help.

Be comfortable moving around.

Find tasks to do on your own sometimes.

Be on time for work.

3

How to apply for this job

If you decide to apply for this job

Answer the questions on the next pages.

Email your answers to Johnscafe@cafelife.com

Send a resume if you have one.

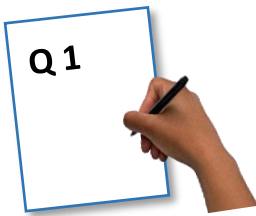

You have to send your application by

Friday 14 January 2024.

To ask questions or get support to apply
call 1800 123 456

Questions you must answer to apply

You can choose to

- write the answers with pen and paper and scan

OR

- you can type answers in a Word document

You can contact CID if you need a different way to apply

1. What is your name?

2. What is your address?

3. How can we contact you?

- Your phone number
- Your email address

4. What does being supported to make decisions mean to you?

5. Why is it important for people with disability to make their own choices and decisions?

6. What do you want to learn in a job?

7. What are the 3 best things about you?

8. What does being a good team member mean to you?

9. What can you do on computers?

Please tick which ones you can do

Emails

Make a Word document

Get onto Zoom or Microsoft Teams

Send your application to info@cid.org.au