

ACON's Disability Community Leadership Project

Creating a sustainable network of LGBTQ+ people with disability to support each other and drive positive change in our communities through:

- One-on-one disability-affirming coaching that honours your lived experience and goals
- A peer networking group to share experiences, strategies, and support in an affirming environment

Applications now open for people who are:

- Disabled and LGBTQ+
- Representing, working with or advocating for their communities
- Aged 18 years and over
- Living in NSW
